It reports on the '08-12-2008 PRESS RELEASE FOUNDING CONFERENCE IN THE HAGUE - DECEMBER 7-9th 2008' and states that 'Representatives of cultural heritage institutes from all over the world met in The Hague at the Founding Conference of the ANCBS - The Association of National Committees of the Blue Shield, with the purpose of coordinating and strengthening international efforts to protect cultural property at risk of destruction during armed conflicts or natural disasters.' It also mentions that 'Sunday 7th, 11 National Blue Shield Committees established the ANCBS organization. An international board was elected, chaired by Karl Habsburg-Lothringen from Austria with members from 6 countries. They identified the following priorities: coordinating and strengthening international efforts to protect cultural property at risk, providing and promoting cultural heritage protection training programs and awareness raising with international and governmental decision makers on the importance of the 1954 Hague Convention and its Protocols and the international symbol of the Blue Shield.'
